BRUSSELS, December 3.—The rejection of the Rothschild plan by the committee of the International Monetary Conference does not finally dispose of Mr. Rothschild's proposals. The minority of the committee who supported the plan are feeling their way to taking a vote of the conference on the scheme, with the amendments offered in the committee that no limitation be made on the price of the proposed annual European purchases of 30,000,000 onnees of silver; that the purchases be over and above the ordinary purchases for token coinage and metal, and that the purchases be employed as money either by coinage or as a metallic basis of notes to be issued.

These modifications increased the value of the plan in the eyes of the bimetallists.

When the conference resumes its session on Tuesday Sir William Houldsworth, one of the British delegates, will bring forward further amendments to Mr. Rothschild's proposals, as the committee recommended a discussion of the plan, with amendments, by the full conference. The proceedings on Tuesday will probably continue on the lines of yesterday's meeting unless the American delegates decide to ask the conference to proceed without delay to discuss the question of international bimetallism.

London, December 3.—The Parnellites were naturally jubilant when they succeeded in having Mr. Fullam, the anti-Parnellite who was elected to represent South Meath in Parliament, deprived of his seat, and there is a prospect that they will have further cause for joy in the case of Michael Davitt, against whose return from North Meath a petition has been presented to the court. As in the case of Mr. Fullam, clerical intimidation in favor of Mr. Davitt is charged by the Parnedites. It is expected that the judges, after unseating Mr. Davitt, will report Bishop Nuity, of Meath, and several priests of that thocese to Parliament as guilty of intimidation.

Should the election petition judges send to Parliament a presentment against Bishop Nuity and the priests who are accused of intimidation, the Irish executive would have no alternative but to prosecute them. The Irish Catholic Bishops have already decided to convene a meeting to discuss the situation, as bearing on the future political manifestoes which it is likely will be more carefully-worded than those heretofore issued.

When Perier's withdrawal became known there was general belief that M. de Freycinet would be asked to form a dissolution Ministry, which it was expected would be the present Cabinet remodelled, with M. Constans in the Home Office and MM. Loubet and Ricard omitted.

President Carnot, however, at 7 o'clock to-night sent for M. Bourgeois and asked him to make an effort to form a Ministry. M. Bourgeois's decision has not yet been announced. If he refuses the task or fails in the attempt MM. de Freycinet and Tirard are the next favorites.
